Anthony Laubi Joins Evercore as Senior Managing Director to Focus on Paper and Packaging

LONDON, November 1, 2018 – Evercore (NYSE:EVR) announced today that Anthony Laubi has joined the Firm’s Investment Banking business as a Senior Managing Director in its Advisory practice based in London. Mr. Laubi will be part of Evercore’s European Industrials team, alongside Dimi Georgiou and Eduard Kostadinov. He will primarily focus on advising clients in the Paper, Packaging and Forest Products sectors, working in close partnership with U.S. colleagues, Mike Palm and John Dillon.

Mr. Laubi was most recently a Managing Director at Credit Suisse, where he was Vice Chairman of the Industrials team and Head of Paper & Packaging EMEA. Prior to joining Credit Suisse in 2008, he had been Head of European Industrials Corporate Finance at Deutsche Bank. Throughout his career, his primary focus has been on advising clients in the Paper, Packaging and Forest Products sectors. He has been engaged in a wide range of domestic and cross border transactions, focusing on both public and private M&A, as well as equity and debt capital market situations.

Ralph Schlosstein, Evercore’s President and CEO, said, “We are very pleased that Anthony is joining Evercore. He has a first class reputation for providing high quality strategic and financial advice to a broad range of international clients and has been involved in many of the most significant transactions in Paper, Packaging and Forest Products. He will be a very strong partner in building our cross-border business in these areas, enabling us to continue to leverage our broad advisory capabilities in Europe and in these sectors.”

Andrew Sibbald, CEO of European Investment Banking at Evercore, commented, “Anthony has an unparalleled track record of advisory work in the Paper and Packaging sector for over 25 years. His client focus, deep sector knowledge and international network make him an ideal fit for Evercore as we continue to build out our advisory business in Europe.”
