Evercore Wealth Management Appoints Michael Beck Managing Director, Portfolio Manager

NEW YORK, January 15, 2020 – Evercore Wealth Management today announced the appointment of Michael Beck as a Managing Director and Portfolio Manager.

Mr. Beck joins Evercore from Goldman Sachs, where he advised and managed portfolios for high net worth clients including partners in the firm and financial services executives, and for family offices, foundations and endowments. He worked at Goldman Sachs for seven years; he was earlier a trader at Edward Jones Investments, where he started his career in 2007.

"Michael's energy, experience and strong relationships in the financial services community make him a welcome addition to our team," said Chris Zander, CEO of Evercore Wealth Management and Evercore Trust Company, N.A. "He shares our values of working directly with clients, providing comprehensive advice and service, and top-tier investment performance."

Mr. Beck is based in New York and reports to Jay Springer, a Partner and Portfolio Manager at Evercore Wealth Management.

Mr. Beck earned a B.S. from Pennsylvania State University and an M.B.A. from the Cornell SC Johnson Graduate School of Management, with a concentration in Capital Markets and Asset Management.

Mr. Beck serves as Vice Chair of the Board of The Financial Clinic, a non-profit organization championing financial literacy and economic security.
