Pedro Aspe Retires as Chairman of Evercore Partners Mexico

Mexico City, February 28, 2017 – Evercore (NYSE:EVR) announced today that Dr. Pedro Aspe has retired from the Company, completing the transition of leadership to Dr. Augusto Arellano, a veteran Senior Managing Director of Evercore in Mexico, who has served as the Chief Executive Officer of Evercore’s businesses in Mexico for the past year.

Dr. Aspe said, “I am very proud of the business that we have built at Evercore in Mexico and around the world. I am confident that Augusto and partners will continue to serve our clients with distinction, sustaining the values of excellence and integrity that we adopted when we launched our business 20 years ago.”

“We are grateful to Pedro for his leadership and vision in building the Evercore business in Mexico,” said Dr. Arellano. “We wish him and his family well and will work hard to grow and enhance the business that he founded.”
